HOTEL SIRIO

Piedmont, Italy

Picturesquely set at the foot of the Aosta Valley in the Verde Canavese between Turin and Milan, the magnificent Hotel Sirio is an Italian lakeside gem that captivates both nature lovers and gastronomists alike.

Recently restored to its historic grandeur, the boutique establishment offers 42 opulent rooms and four suites decadently dressed in pastel tones of warm beiges and crisp blues. Panoramic views of Sirio Lake, Serra Morenica and the medieval town of Andrate are complemented by a wealth of rich appointments, including large flat-screen televisions, wireless Internet access and stocked mini-bars. Suites present extra touches such as entertainment centers with special USB keys that allow guests to select films from the hotel's vast media library.

Hotel Sirio's commitment to excellence lavishly extends to its other amenities. At the signature Finch restaurant, guests are delighted with savory Italian cuisine made of fresh products from the Piedmont region. The chic and contemporary restaurant showcases grill specialties, a tantalizing menu that changes weekly, and spectacular vistas that serve as an alluring backdrop. Elsewhere, at the hotel's brand new wellness center, guests find a serene hideaway for restorative and rejuvenating massage therapy.

Savvy business travelers can equally partake of the property's sophisticated meeting and event facilities. With venues for up to 200 guests, expert services, the latest technology and its scenic surrounds, Hotel Sirio ensures the success of any important conference or gala.

DOMAINE DES REMPARTS HOTEL & SPA

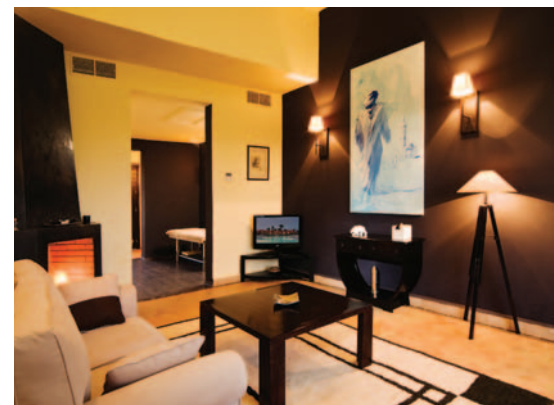

Marrakech, Morocco

Situated in the heart of a palm grove on a five-acre park oasis in Marrakech, the lavish Domaine des Remparts presents sumptuous accommodations and world-class facilities to create an exotic haven of peace and tranquility.

With breathtaking views of the Atlas Mountains as a backdrop, the hotel employs minimalist lines and pared-down architecture inspired by the spirit of the Berber ksars. Contemporary décor is enhanced by artisan flourishes and a warm palette to create casual and welcoming environs.

Consisting of a cluster of pavilions set around a large pool and lush garden, the property showcases spacious suites that start at a staggering 1,400 square feet. Impressively appointed as exclusive hideaways, every accommodation features its own terrace, private garden, fireplace, plush bedroom, oversized bathroom and separate living room. Some executive suites add private massage facilities offering guests their own en-suite spa.

Indulgent amenities are discovered throughout the property. For an all-encompassing therapeutic spa experience, the Spa Domaine des Remparts is wholly dedicated to wellness and beauty. Guests will be charmed by delicate aromas of the east and soothed by treatments inspired by natural local products.

The hotel also offers two fine dining options: the Oriental (highlighting traditional gourmet Moroccan fare) and Le Grill (serving casual fare in the outdoor pool area). Tennis courts, a fitness center and an extensive library are also spectacularly featured at Domaine des Remparts.
